

YEAR 8 LATIN GRADE DESCRIPTORS

A	B	C	T
Understands new grammatical structures and is quick to recognise them in unseen text. Learns new vocabulary and language features thoroughly. Good working knowledge of three verb tenses, including irregular verbs. Good working knowledge of nominative, accusative and dative noun cases. Can translate fluently from Latin to English. Can often decipher unfamiliar vocabulary using context and knowledge of English derivations. Can complete comprehension tasks with a high degree of accuracy. Can identify and correct own mistakes. Demonstrates a good understanding of the classical history topics studied. Spelling is very accurate.	Understands new grammatical concepts and can usually recognise them in unseen text. Learns new vocabulary and language features thoroughly. Fair working knowledge of three verb tenses, including irregular verbs. Fair working knowledge of nominative, accusative and dative noun cases. Can translate fairly accurately from Latin to English. Can decipher some unfamiliar vocabulary using context and knowledge of English derivations. Can complete comprehension tasks with accuracy. Can identify and correct own mistakes with some prompting from others or teacher. Demonstrates understanding of the classical history topics studied. Spelling is mostly accurate.	Understands most of the new grammatical concepts and can recognise them in text, sometimes with prompting from the teacher. New vocabulary is usually recognised but regular reinforcement is needed. Fair working knowledge of three verb tenses, including the most common irregular verbs. Fair working knowledge of nominative, accusative and dative noun cases. Can extract the meaning from unseen text even if the translation is not wholly accurate. Can decipher some unfamiliar vocabulary using context and knowledge of English derivations. Can complete comprehension tasks with some accuracy. Can sometimes identify and correct own mistakes with prompting from others or teacher. Demonstrates understanding of the classical history topics studied. Spelling is usually accurate.	Understands some of the new grammatical concepts and vocabulary although regular reinforcement is needed. Can recognise the three verb tenses in some contexts. Can sometimes differentiate between the three noun cases although recognition is insecure. Can extract some meaning from unseen text although the detail of the translation can be inaccurate. Can sometimes decipher unfamiliar vocabulary using context and knowledge of English derivations. Can complete some comprehension tasks with success. Can correct some mistakes with prompting from teacher. Demonstrates some understanding of the classical history topics studied. Spelling is mostly comprehensible.

LATIN YEAR 9 GRADE DESCRIPTORS

A	B	C	T
Understands new grammatical structures and is quick to recognise them in unseen text. Learns new vocabulary and language features thoroughly. Good working knowledge of four indicative and two subjunctive verb tenses. Good working knowledge of nominative, accusative, genitive and dative noun cases. Can recognise and translate past and present participles. Can translate fluently from Latin to English. Can often decipher unfamiliar vocabulary using context and knowledge of English derivations. Can complete comprehension tasks with a high degree of accuracy. Can identify and correct own mistakes. Demonstrates a good understanding of the classical history topics studied. Spelling is very accurate.	Understands new grammatical concepts and can usually recognise them in unseen text. Learns new vocabulary and language features thoroughly. Fair working knowledge of four indicative and two subjunctive verb tenses. Fair working knowledge of nominative, accusative, genitive and dative noun cases. Can recognise and translate past and present participles. Can translate fairly accurately from Latin to English. Can decipher some unfamiliar vocabulary using context and knowledge of English derivations. Can complete comprehension tasks with accuracy. Can identify and correct own mistakes with some prompting from others or teacher. Demonstrates understanding of the classical history topics studied. Spelling is mostly accurate.	Understands most of the new grammatical concepts and can recognise them in text, sometimes with prompting from the teacher. New vocabulary is usually recognised but regular reinforcement is needed. Fair working knowledge of four indicative and two subjunctive verb tenses. Fair working knowledge of nominative, accusative, genitive and dative noun cases. Can usually recognise and translate past and present participles. Can extract the meaning from unseen text even if the translation is not wholly accurate. Can decipher some unfamiliar vocabulary using context and knowledge of English derivations. Can complete comprehension tasks with some accuracy. Can sometimes identify and correct own mistakes with prompting from others or teacher. Demonstrates understanding of the classical history topics studied. Spelling is usually accurate.	Understands some of the new grammatical concepts and vocabulary although regular reinforcement is needed. Can recognise four indicative and two subjunctive verb tenses in some contexts. Can sometimes differentiate between the four noun cases but recognition is insecure. Can usually differentiate present and past participles. Can extract some meaning from unseen text although the detail of the translation can be inaccurate. Can sometimes decipher unfamiliar vocabulary using context and knowledge of English derivations. Can complete some comprehension tasks with success. Can correct some mistakes with prompting from teacher. . Demonstrates some understanding of the classical history topics studied. Spelling is mostly comprehensible.